Prekindergarten -- 12th Grade

THE KINKAID SUMMER SCHOOL

The Kinkaid Summer School offers a variety of programs for Prekindergarten through 12th grade. The course descriptions explain the major emphasis and requirements for each course. We offer students both enrichment and remedial courses taught by Kinkaid faculty, other qualified teachers, and visiting artists.

Four-week academic courses run from June 6th - July 1st. Morning Learning Camp (entering grades PreK -1st) is offered as a four week or weekly program. Many of our special Art and Academic Enrichment Camps and Sports Camps are offered on a weekly basis. Consult the brochure for specific dates and times.

Academic credit is awarded only at the discretion of a student's regular school. Minimum attendance requirements must be met to receive recommendation for credit. Students who are absent are unlikely to receive the session's recommendation for credit. Students who are seeking academic credit for summer courses should get approval from their regular school prior to the start of summer classes. When they are requested, reports will be sent to a student's regular school.

S103A 3rd GRADE MATH WORKSHOP : BACK TO BASICS THROUGH PROBLEM SOLVING (8:30-9:45 a.m.)

The goal of this workshop is to help students bone up on basic math skills and strengthen their ability to solve word problems. Students' strengths and weaknesses will be identified before extending the basic skills, operations, computations, and strategies needed for a stronger math foundation. All four operations and facts will be reviewed and learned in a fun, creative, and stress-free manner. This course deals with the nuts and bolts of math; however, we will also practice solving higher-level thinking and logic problems to stimulate and challenge young minds. Students will finish the workshop more confident in their own mathematical ability. Instruction will be differentiated, so each student may successfully move ahead in their learning at their own pace. This math class is for students entering 3rd or 4th grade who need to work on their basic skills and confidence.

Instructor: CeCelia O'Connell

S104A 4th GRADE ENRICHING MATH AND THINKING CRITICALLY (8:30-9:45 a.m.)

Thinking is fun! Bolster your math foundation and learn to think critically. Children's thinking abilities will grow as they respond to motivational activities. Students will become active learners with high-interest and engaging experiences. This class will focus on five important skill activities: analytical thinking, flexible thinking, problem solving, higher level thinking and originality. Thinking is a skill that can be learned and can then help move your child to the head of his/her class. We will also work on activities to develop skills in critical listening, following oral directions and memory. Sharpen math and thinking skills in an innovative approach. This course is designed for students entering 4th grade or those who need to revisit or sharpen 4th grade math skills.

Instructor: Lisa Curry

S103B READING STRATEGIES FOR 3rd GRADERS (9:55-11:10 a.m.)

Boost your reading comprehension using numerous high interest nonfiction and fiction sources. We will focus on using reading tools and strategies to improve comprehension. This course will include activities that help students keep track of their thinking, monitor their understanding, and use their background knowledge to connect the new to the known. Students will learn to ask questions to clarify unfamiliar ideas and discover new information. Opportunities will be given for students to read independently, as well as with their book club.

Instructor: Lisa Curry

S104B 4th GRADE LITERATURE WORKSHOP: DEEPENING COMPREHENSION THROUGH GENRE STUDIES (9:55-11:10 a.m.)

This workshop is for students who are interested in expanding their literature experiences and deepening their comprehension through the components of a balanced literacy workshop. The class will be introduced to a myriad of genres. Students will be given the opportunity to talk and write about their reading using reading strategies and skills. Students will select their favorite books to explore in further depth, and will engage in book clubs to heighten their understanding of story elements and deepen their level of comprehension. Key comprehension strategies such as inferring, questioning, making meaningful connections, visualizing, and determining importance will be the context for becoming a more purposeful and strategic reader. Come celebrate reading with good literature and engage in exciting conversations about books!

Instructor: CeCelia O’Connell

S103C 3RD GRADE WRITING WORKSHOP WITH TECHNOLOGY (11:20 a.m.-12:30 p.m.)

Students will have fun this summer using technology to make their writing come alive. Their voices will be heard through creating their own blog, I movies, skyping with other students, and publishing stories, poems, and book reviews online. Students will also write and make commercials using Aurasma, they will make online posters experimenting with Glogster, do research to show what they know using Powtoons, and write stories using iBook software. These 21st century technology tools will add meaning and excitement to students’ writing experiences. We will provide students with rich opportunities to collaborate with peers and open the door to sharing their work with a bigger audience. They will become an active writer by using technology to research, explore, create, and share using I Pads and Apple computers. This class will help your student communicate more effectively, collaborate with others, and think creatively and critically. Come learn how to incorporate digital and Web 2.0 tools in meaningful ways that make writing fun.

9TH-12TH GRADE PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS:

S302A ALGEBRA I (8:30-9:45 a.m.)

This course is for students who want to prepare for Algebra I or refresh their introductory algebra skills. We will introduce/review many of the important concepts from Algebra I. We will explore various concepts such as writing and graphing linear equations, solving systems of equations, factoring, exponents and radicals, functions and relations, simplifying radicals, and solving quadratic equations. Many of the skills taught will be beneficial as students prepare for upper level math courses. This class is designed for students entering Algebra I or those who want to brush up on their algebra skills before taking Algebra II.

Instructor: Shayla Thomas

S301B STUDY SKILLS and INTENSE NOTETAKING (9:55 - 11:10 a.m.)

This course is designed to help foster necessary study habits that are key to success, providing the tools to build academic confidence to tackle the more challenging high school curriculum while working towards becoming a more independent learner. Students will be introduced to time management tips, organizational habits, active reading and listening strategies, and effective notetaking and test taking strategies. Students will get a boost from this course. Rather than cramming for tests, students will find themselves learning, remembering and recalling material more effectively. This course provides instruction in organization and time management, goal setting, effective note taking, test taking strategies, reading with better comprehension and efficiency, and other areas related to improving study habits.

Instructor: Mallory Meyer

S302B ALGEBRA II (9:55-11:10 a.m.)

This course is for students who want to prepare for Algebra II or refresh their Algebra II skills. We will review concepts such as factoring, solving and graphing quadratic functions, solving and graphing absolute value equations and inequalities, complex numbers, operations with functions, solving systems of equations, and if time permits, exploring exponents and logarithms. This is not a complete course in Algebra II. Many of the skills taught will be beneficial as students prepare for upper level math courses and SAT or ACT testing. Successful completion of Algebra I is a prerequisite for this class.

Instructor: Shayla Thomas

S302C GEOMETRY (11:20-12:30 p.m.)

Geometry presents a unique set of mathematical challenges to students. This course is great for those who want to get a head start on Geometry or review concepts from previous Geometry courses. This course will cover important geometry concepts such as logical reasoning & proofs, properties of angles, triangles, polygons, solids, and circles. Interspersed throughout the course will be skills from Algebra I such as solving equations & systems and solving word problems. This class would be great from students taking Geometry the following year or students who want to gain a better understanding of Geometry to enable better performance in future math courses.

Instructor: Shayla Thomas

S304C COMPOSITION 9th/10th grade (11:20-12:30 p.m.)

Students will receive instruction on how to improve their writing. Each week students will use the writing process to compose a paper in a different genre of writing. Students will learn strategies that will help them become better writers. Students will also practice writing effective compositions for high school and beyond.

Instructor: Tom Peden

WRITING THE COLLEGE APPLICATION ESSAY Entering 12th Graders Only

S334J WEEK I: MAY 31 - JUNE 6 (Classes will not take place over the weekend) 9:00 - 10:30 a.m

S334K WEEK I: MAY 31 - JUNE 6 (Classes will not take place over the weekend) 10:30 a.m. - Noon

Take advantage of the first week of summer to get a head start on your college essays. In this class we will read and then discuss the strengths and weaknesses in several sample essays. In reading and discussing these essays, you will learn what works and what doesn't. Specifically, you will learn how to avoid the clichéd topics and the cheesy platitudes and how to make your essays your own--engaging, interesting and original. You will also have time at the end of each day to work on your own essays, so that by the end of our week, you will not only know more about writing a successful essay, but you will have begun some of your own. Starting these essays early will give you time to refine them throughout the summer and time to consider how this summer's experiences could serve as a good topic for additional college essays.

Note: If you are a Fall athlete coaches recommend taking the June rather than the August course if possible. Whether you are an athlete or not, you should NOT take both the June and August classes since they will be essentially the same.

Falcon Boot Camp is back and more exciting than ever! Like last year, this summer program will challenge kids with FUN and creative kid-friendly, boot camp style “missions”. Kinkaid’s Head Football Coach, Nathan Larned, will challenge the participants each day with mentally and physically challenging missions. Every mission will incorporate Speed & Agility, Core Stability, Conditioning, Flexibility, Leadership Development, and possibly some WATER BALLOONS. Missions include Capture the Flag, Scavenger Hunts, Grenade Launching (w/ water balloons), King of the Hill, Secret Service, and many, many, more. Additionally, kids will have daily post workout discussions (over popsicles!) that will emphasize leadership development. Kids will get to experience the best indoor and outdoor facilities in the area here at Kinkaid and are encouraged to participate in as many sessions as their schedule will allow in order to maximize their experience. Kids will have a BLAST in this unique program and are going to become better athletes and leaders in the process. BRING YOUR WATER GUNS!! THE BIGGER, THE BETTER!!
